Commencement Cer

n Tyler of Aerosmith

On Friday, June 3, 2005 over 2,700 bachelors, masters, and doctoral degrees were conferred at UMass Boston's 37th commencement.

WGBH Channel 2 Journalist Emily Rooney received an honorary degree and delivered the main address.

Other commencement honorees were: Leonel Fernández, president of the Dominican Republic; John Ruffin, director of the National Center on Minority Health and Health Disparities; Gail Snowden of The Boston Foundation; and Steven Tyler, a member of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and the lead singer of the Boston-based band Aerosmith.

Graduating senior Kent Downing spoke on behalf of the Class of 2005. Downing is a graduate of the College of Management.

Three UMass Boston faculty members were honored. Professor Esther Kingston-Mann of the American Studies Program received the Chancellor's Distinguished Scholarship Award, Professor Steve Schwartz of the Psychology Department received the Chancellor's Distinguished Service Award, and Professor Linda Dittmar of the English Department received the Chancellor's Distinguished Teaching Award.
